

SPONSOR A FOOD2KIDS SACK

Can you imagine what it would be like to go to bed hungry?
Thousands of Lubbock children go without food every weekend.

Thanks to The Junior League of Lubbock's Food2Kids program, almost 950 children each weekend are going to bed with fuller tummies.

Now in its fifth year, Food2Kids works with Lubbock ISD to target elementary school children who are fed primarily in the school lunchroom Monday through Friday, but who go hungry on the weekends at home. Each week, Junior League volunteers stuff sacks of food and distribute these sacks to children at school on Friday afternoons.

The program has seen tremendous growth. Since September 2007, Food2Kids has increased food sack distribution by 700 children!

With this tremendous demand, Food2Kids needs your support so that no child is denied.

For a one-time donation of $130, you can sponsor a year's worth of food sacks for one child. This will provide a year of sacks to a hungry child every week during the 40-week school year.

Over the years, Food2Kids has received numerous thank-you letters from those we are helping. A 9-year-old third grader named Denise wrote, "Whenever you send me food, it puts me in a good mood. It puts a smile on my face." One elementary school parent wrote, "The food has helped me when there was no more food."

Please consider sponsoring a year's worth of food sacks for a Food2Kids child. Your donation could be the difference in a child's bedtime dreams.
